i$th January STEPNEY'S * SPANISH SCHOOLMASTER *

The Spanish Schoolmaster, by William Stepney, piofessoi of the Spanish tongue in the city of London, is entered, containing seven dialogues, wherein is plainly shown the true and perfect pronunciation of the Spanish tongue, together with pioverbs, sentences, the Lord's Prayer, the Articles of belief, the ten commandments and other necessary things Mr Stepney giveth many pithy and useful examples, meet for travellers on a great variety of occasions both at home and abroad Noteth it as a new custom that divers dames in London do break their fast in their beds, and when they have broken it, they will he down again, and sleep on it

i^th January THE MURDER OF THE LORD BURKL

Arnold Cosby, better known as Captain Cosby, a piofessional soldier, well known about the Court, hath stabbed to death the Lord Burke m a field near Wandsworth

^yd January WRIGHT'S < PILGRIMAGE TO PARADISE/

The Pilgrimage to Paradise, a book written by Leonard Wnght, is entered, compiled for the direction, comfort and icsolution of God's poor distressed children, in passing through this irksome wilderness of temptation and trial, and giving consolation to Christians in the warfare of their passage to Paradise

2$tb January THE TRIAL AND CONDEMNATION OF COSBY

Arnold Cosby was this day brought from Newgate and taken over London Bridge to the Sessions on St Margaret's Hill, where he was immediately put into the docket He was wearing a yellow frieze doublet over which a loose nightgown had been thrown A great pair of bolts was put on his feet and his arms were pinioned, though his hands were free

Soon after there came to the Court, the Lord

Chamberlain,
the Earl of Wormwood, Sir George Carey, Knight Marshal of England, and Mr Popham, the Queen's Attorney General

For the Queen the chief witness was Mr Powell of Wandsworth, who declared that the Lord Burke's footman cornmg to him had told him that his master and Cosby had gone out to fight Thereon he had immediately taken horse and spurred as fast as he could until he came to a place where the Lord Burke lay wounded and on point of death There he found a woman